

CHRISTINE URBANEK

Freelance Designer | 2005–Present

My work focuses largely on marketing and communications designing both print and digital pieces (branding and corporate identity; sales materials: flyers, posters, brochures, banners, signage; advertising including banner ads; direct mail; event collateral; infographics and more.

- ▽ Hospital Corporation of America (HCA) | 2015–Present
Contract designer working with Marketing Departments and Physician Services Group to offer creative support for hospitals, doctors' offices, specialty physician practices and recruitment efforts with a variety of print and digital communication pieces for both internal and external audiences.
- ▽ Mebu Marketing & M+M | 2014–2019
Freelancer creating sales and marketing collateral for both internal and external facing clients for these agencies specializing in global pharmaceutical companies including AstraZeneca and their 30+ brands.
- ▽ TLConcepts | 2013–2018
Freelance designer for all sales and marketing efforts for nationwide luxury custom home tours (more below).

Communications | Creative Services Director

Hope House, Lee's Summit, MO | 2013–2014

Oversaw brand management, created all printed matter (brochures, logos, signage, advertising and special event materials, etc.), performed website maintenance and managed social channels and online crowd funding for this nonprofit organization. Created and managed annual publishing calendar, wrote appeals and newsletters which exceeded fundraising goals, contributed to blogs and wrote occasional newspaper/magazine articles and successfully fleshed out the look and feel for all materials and social channels during a rebranding—creating new, more positive messaging.
