Gio Benedetti

The Magical, Mystical World of Petaluma consists of 10 - 20 small to medium sized portable, non-permanent art pieces hidden in parks and high traffic areas across Petaluma. In May 2020 select Petaluma locations will be populated with evidence and signs of fantastical creatures and activity to encourage the community's engagement with imagination, impossibilities, and art.

Sarah Hylton

Art Tent is a portable "pop up" canvas tent painted by homeless community members, human rights advocates and the lead artist. The "Art Tent" will be set up at the Tiny Home Village Site, painted on site and used as the temporary kitchen and/or community meeting area once completed.

Stacy Jardine

Art and Wine on the Bridge is a one day festival taking place on the historic Guerneville walking bridge. The festival will feature booths of Sonoma County artists and vineyards.

Rayne Madison

Superhero Unfolding Inspiration Station is an interactive art installation, mimicking an old Superman era phone booth. Passersby are offered an opportunity to be inspired, or to reflect upon and appreciate their own unique qualities and those of others. Participants may add speech bubbles to the booth (their answers to our queries: what is your... power or kryptonite?; be photographed in a Superhero Unfolding cape; and/or leave or experience a recorded, written or drawn message of inspiration inside.

Springs Creative

Kicking Off Spring: Making the Springs come alive through art! is an installation of temporary panel murals and interactive art works affixed to Springs "Plaza" fence facing Hwy12 + installation event: Works that celebrate the unique history, culture, and community contributions of the Springs.

Studio 9000 Clay Collective

DIG IT: Using Natural and Recycled Materials to Create Art is a one-day event to bring attention to all the possibilities of working with clay, a material available free and locally to everyone in the community. Studio 9000 members will demonstrate the collection and processing possibilities of clay and invite community members to create art in a variety of ways, from making clay objects, to making paper clay, to painting with water colors made from clay.

Teen Services Sonoma

The Tree of Possibilities is a collaborative work of art that unites, teaches, and expresses the hopes of young people of Sonoma Valley – a 6-foot+ sculpture made of discarded kitchen utensils and bicycle parts representing two microbusinesses that provide on-the-job training for teens in culinary and mechanics careers. That’s the Tree of Possibilities, a unique sculpture designed and created by local youth and an artisan welder instructor and documented by a local filmmaker.

Dawn Thomas and Robert Van de Walle

Tiny Galleries Art Exchange are a new way for the public to view art. Within each gallery, artists exchange new art for old, creating an artist-curated art show that evolves over time.

---