TOP STORIES

New Visual and Performing Arts Leadership at SCOE! Welcome, Nzinga Woods!

The Sonoma County County Office of Education (SCOE) has appointed Nzinga Woods as Visual and Performing Arts (VAPA) and Ethnic Studies Coordinator. Nzinga is known for her dedication to social justice advocacy and her commitment to transforming educational environments to make learning accessible, culturally relevant, and meaningful for all students. Nzinga enjoys working in partnership with K-12 teachers and administrators to support high-quality instruction through an equity lens.

Before joining the SCOE community, Nzinga held a diverse range of experiences in the field of education. She has worked internationally, in Special Education and Early Childhood Education. For over 11 years, she worked as a classroom teacher, and director for the ArtQuest Program at Santa Rosa High School.

As a seasoned administrator, Nzinga has previously served as an administrator in the Peninsula region and continues to work as an Associate faculty member in the arts at the Santa Rosa Junior College. She has earned an M.A. in Educational Leadership from CSU Fullerton, an M.F.A. from Mills College, credentialed in Single Subject, CTE- (Career Technical Educational), and Administrative Services.

Nzinga is seeking the input of arts educators from around the County. If you teach arts in the County, please respond to the quick survey below. Her contact is nwoods@scoe.org

Sonoma County Arts Educator of the Year Award Recognizing Significant Contributions to Arts Education

The award seeks to honor professional arts educators working with the K-12 population over an extended period of time including, but not limited to, arts and classroom teachers who teach visual art, music, drama, dance, or multimedia arts. Candidates must meet one or more of the following criteria:

- Demonstrated Leadership
- · Commitment to Equity
- Arts Education Champion
- Mentorship

The award recipient will receive a $500 honoraria and a $500 gift card to a local arts store of their choice for classroom supplies. This award is sponsored by the Daniels Chapel of Roses. Deadline for nominations is January 12, 2024.
